

Recommended Reads for Year 7

Kiss of Death* by Malcolm Rose

A school trip takes a very unexpected and dangerous direction.

Journey to the River Sea* by Eva Ibbotson

Maya goes on an amazing adventure as she travels to live with distant relatives on the Amazon. Historical adventure.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid* by Jeff Kinney

A Rossett favourite. A fun and easy read.

Murderous Maths

Kjartan Poskitt makes maths fun. If you are not so keen on fiction this is a great series to try. If you prefer history try Terry Deary's Horrible Histories.

Beswitched* by Kate Saunders

Flora finds herself flipped back in time to a boarding school in 1930. How will she manage in this strange world with no hair straighteners and mobile phones? What is she doing there and how will she get home?

The London Eye Mystery* by Siobhan Dowd

A trip on the London Eye leads to the disappearance of Ted and Kat's cousin. This is a page turner of a mystery that will keep you guessing until the end.

Speedy Reads

Try a book from the Quick Reads display - ideal if you want a great story that's not too long!

- Desirable* by Frank Cottrell Boyce

George is given an old bottle of aftershave - he wears it to school with amazing effects- all the girls are in love with him including the teachers! Very funny.

- Escape From Colditz* and *Arctic Hero

True stories of grit and heroism.

- Amir Khan* and *Lewis Hamilton

Easy to read stories of sporting stars and their success.

....and lots more
