

Rossett Reading

Another busy week and hopefully we have all found time to enjoy some reading. The LRC has been busy all week and it has been hugely encouraging to see so many students browsing, reading and taking books home to enjoy. Well done everyone!

Reasons why we read

To have fun

To learn something

For positive mental health

To go somewhere

To think

To be part of something

To know the score

To pass
exams

To pass the time

Because we liked the film

Did you know? YouTube has many audiobooks available. For example, Fantastic Beasts and Where To Find Them by JK Rowling read by Eddie Redmayne. Let me know which ones you find and enjoy.

Don't forget to send a book review to :

SAsker@rossettschool.co.uk and I will include it in the next newsletter. Happy reading everyone!
