Registering for an Undergraduate application.

Updated: 25 March 2021

Using this slide deck

This presentation deck has been designed to allow teachers and advisers to share the application journey with students.

The information relates to the 2022 application cycle which will open in May 2021. Up until this point you will not be able to replicate the journey on ucas.com.

You can copy and paste the screenshots included into your own materials and guides to support students. However please note at the time of publishing this document (March 2021) the 2022 application is in the final stages of testing.

There may be minor enhancements to the application – for example updated help-text or question text. As such, some screenshots will change and we will update this slide deck periodically.

Some courses may require you to disclose your criminal conviction status.

We'll only show this question if the course choice requires it.

Criminal convictions

Do you have any spent or unspent criminal convictions or other punishments that would show up on a criminal records check?

n/a

☐ Yes ☐ No

▼ Help with criminal convictions

Further checks may also be required under the Disclosure and Barring Service.

If you have spent or unspent convictions from a court outside Great Britain, additional checks may be carried out depending on the records available in respect of the applicable country.

A criminal records check may show all spent and unspent criminal convictions including (but not limited to) cautions, reprimands, final warnings, bind over orders or similar and, to the extent relevant to this course, may also show details of any minor offences, fixed penalty notices, penalty notices for disorder, ASBOs or VOOs.

It is recommended that you read the help text accompanying this question and if these issues are in any way relevant to you, you should obtain further advice from appropriate bodies. UCAS will not be able to assist you in this respect.

You will be asked this question each time you add a course that requires a criminal conviction declaration.
