This course is for any people interested in the significant role played by women in British history

For the first session students will need: N/A

This course aims to introduce various lesser known women who have played a role in the development of social and political events in Britain, as well as considering some more well-known figures.

The course will cover:

Rulers: Boudicca; Aethelflaed and the Saxon Queens; Medieval scandals - Matilda and Eleanor of Aquitaine; The six wives of Henry VIII; Tudor Queens – 'Bloody' Mary and Elizabeth; The Stuarts – Mary II and Anne.

Rebels and Revolutionaries, including Elizabeth Fry, Caroline Norton, the Langham Place Group, Dorothea Beale and Frances Buss, Elizabeth Garrett, the Suffrage Movement, Josephine Butler and Gertrude Bell.

By the end of the course students will have a greater awareness of the role played by women in British history and have a platform for further reading and research into the lives of many fascinating women.

Tutor Profile: Andrew Ison has had two quite interesting careers as a Catholic Priest and as a secondary school teacher. He has degrees from the University of Durham and the Pontifical University of Comillas in Madrid. He brings a wide range of knowledge and understanding to bear on issues by using analogies, analyzing motives, asking awkward questions, identifying patterns and providing background. In doing this, he engages audiences so as to stimulate interest and encourage learning.
