Tutor Profile:

I am a native Spanish lecturer with over eighteen years' experience teaching all level of the language from beginners to proficiency. I have a degree in Tourism and a PGCE in Education. I have just finished the second year of my MA in literary translation and also taking part in several research activities and projects with some European Universities. I am in the middle of translating my first book by the British Author Ann Pilling titled "Amber's secret".

I am passionate about my job and always strive to make my classes enjoyable and informative – which I think they are!
