This course aims to use Life Drawing as a tool to learn how to progress observation and mark making. Each lesson will involve drawing exercises to develop and improve drawing skills using Charcoal, Graphite and Ink pen.

Progressive drawing exercises will address line, value, tone and texture and will use different ways to approach the skill of drawing

This course is for beginners or advanced learners who want to build their core skills and become more confident with drawing mediums in a supportive learning environment.

Art is a continual learning process and this course would also give previous students the opportunity to progress their skills further, whilst exploring new techniques.

Students' prior learning and their expectations about the course will be assessed by individual student discussions at the start of the course.

The course will cover:

Understanding light and tonal value

Addressing scale and proportion

Learning to observe and record accurately

Study of composition

Progressing observational skills

Learning how to judge and correct drawings to improve accuracy

Evaluation of your learning journey will be measured by reviewing the work at the beginning and end of the course.

By the end of the course students should feel confident with their progress using a range of drawing materials and be able to judge, create and assess accurately in different mediums.
