This course aims to use a mixture of ink, pastel and Paint mediums to help develop a sense of colour and form in Life Drawing.

Each Lesson will involve different approaches with colour to improve representation of the human figure.

This course is for beginners who want to build their core skills and become more confident and enjoy the different painting and drawing mediums in a supportive learning environment.

Students will concentrate on how to use colour to produce depth, mark making and define shape. Observational painting will involve the study of tonal value, saturation, composition and how it can work effectively.

Art is a continual learning process and this course would also give previous students the opportunity to progress their skills further, whilst exploring new techniques.

Students' prior learning and their expectations about the course will be assessed by individual student discussions at the start of the course.

The course will cover:

Developing skills on how to use various art mediums.

Using observational skills to record what you see

Exploring colour theory, behaviour and composition'

Understanding and applying colour with minimal palette'

Learning to see the difference between colour and tone.

Evaluation of your learning journey will be measured by reviewing the work at the beginning and end of the course.

By the end of the course students should feel confident with their progress using a range of painting materials and be able to judge, create and assess accurately in different mediums.
