

Your child has just received their Bookbuzz book! And here's why...

Our school is taking part in BookTrust's Bookbuzz reading programme which aims to get your child/ren excited about reading. We gave them the opportunity to choose their own book to keep because we believe reading for pleasure is important.

Below are three top tips on how to get involved and encourage your child to read more:

- 1. Get talking! The easiest way to get involved is to talk to your child about books and reading. Their Bookbuzz book is a great place to start. Why did they choose their book? Are they enjoying it? Talking about books together shows them the value of reading and will encourage them to form and share their opinions on what they read.
- 2. Make it fun! Reading should be a fun and social activity. You can find lots of activities on the Bookbuzz website to share and enjoy with your child, including videos and blogs from the Bookbuzz authors, quizzes and competitions. Just visit: booktrust.org.uk/bookbuzz.
- 3. What next? Finishing their Bookbuzz book should be the start of the adventure for your child, not the end! No matter what their interests, there are thousands of fantastic books out there to discover and capture their imagination. For more advice, you can ask a librarian or local book shop.

Bookbuzz is run by BookTrust, the UK's largest children's reading charity that transforms lives by getting children and families reading. Each year BookTrust reaches 3.4 million children across the UK with books, resources and support to help deliver a love of reading. To find out more about BookTrust visit booktrust.org.uk.
